NA FALLBALL 2016 WEEK #8 RECAP ACCORDING TO FENNIS DEMBO

We wrapped up the regular season schedule in style this week. Hope everyone had a great Halloween. We said goodbye to Brooks School aka "The McDome" this week as we will play all playoff games in the barn starting with preliminary round games on Monday 11/7. This week we saw a fair amount of solid games as all teams were jockeying for playoff positioning. Thanks to Stacheys' Pizza for providing the annual coaches appreciation buffet for our volunteer and coaching staffs who do so much for our kids. So let's break down week #8 and prepare for the race for the TJ Mcevoy Trophy.

NORTH ANDOVER 57 WACHUSETT 51: This was a good one between two well coached teams that play the right way. Only negative about this one is that it did become a foul fest down the stretch. Both Teams' Big 3 did not disappoint. For NA Matt Rosenthal, Connor Rogers and Jack Fowler were strong for the Knights and Eric Bjorn, Joey Nuttal and Sam Dion were equally impressive for the Mountaineers.

NEW MISSION 78 ANDOVER 54: Andover was coming off their biggest win of the fall and New Mission was coming off two straight losses so something had to give. Titan speed was a major factor and the emergence of single digit scorer Shaq Murray scoring a career high 29 points with 7 threes was the difference. Despite the lopsided score the Golden Warriors did not mail it in and they battled every possession.

LAWRENCE WINS BY FORFEIT OVER LOWELL:

BURLINGTON 53 METHUEN 52. This may have been the Red Devils signature win this fall. They played very well and survived a violent late comeback by the Rangers. Mariano Rodrigues was huge for

Burlington with 17 points and 15 rebounds and Andrew Marcelino was equally impressive for Methuen with 21 points and 12 rebounds

CENTRAL CATHOLIC 70 TEWKSBURY 50: This is just not a great matchup for the Redmen as CC had a distinct height advantage at every position the entire night. CC out rebounded Tewksbury 48-20 and obviously controlled both glasses. Sam Lara was a beast early and Raiders got to go deep into bench and everyone contributed. Kudos to the Redmen who despite the height disadvantage battled all night

ST. JOHN'S PREP 52 LONDONDERRY 40: This was a good game between two of our top teams. It was also the tale of two halves as Londonderry controlled the first half and the Prep dominated in the second half. The Eagles bottled up Jake Coleman and Nate Hobbs for SJP had a strong second half

SALEM 59 TRITON 44. The Blue Devils led gate to wire but got away from things that were being productive and let Triton back in the game a number of times. In the end Salem was just the better team and kept the Vikings winless on the fall

CHELMSFORD 67 PELHAM 62: This was a very entertaining game as evenly matched teams really got after it. This was a game of runs and the lead changes were constant. After it looked like the Pythons were going to grab their second win the Lions took back control late and scored their second win

HAVERHILL 57 ST PETER-MARIAN 50: The Guardians only had five guys and they played like a team that knew they had the #2 seed wrapped up. The Hillies were fighting for their playoff lives and battled hard all night. Good to see Bobby Letourneau of SPM is back to his old self and Navin Cruz and Joey Fenderson were the leaders for Haverhill

WESTFORD 50 PEABODY 36: Westford played very well tonight led by top guns Jon Glidden and Robbie Hudson. Peabody was missing their best player Junior Estrella and they struggled to score. Grey Ghosts grabbed their third win which helps them as they head into the playoffs

AWARD

COLLEGES IN THE BARN. This week we saw ANN MARIA, ST JOSEPHS, ENDICOTT, COLBY-SAWYER. We have now seen 34 different colleges. THE SIGN IN LOBBY WILL ALWAYS LET YOU KNOW WHO IS HERE

Every year NA FALLBALL does more to help players get appropriate and realistic college exposure. When we say coaches are here they are here!!!

I will never criticize Bettencourt/ Richards sitting etiquette after seeing this pic

RULE**
- Meeting areas for teams is front and back stairwell, first floor game room and outside. YOU CAN NOT GO ON SECOND FLOOR

Week #8 TOP 5 PET PEEVES: Every week we highlight our pet peeves. Yes we are perfectionists so we expect the game to be played the right way. Effort mistakes are tolerable but many of these throughout the fall will give true basketball people angina

5. BIGS WHO GET THE BALL RIPPED FROM THEIR HANDS BY SMALLER/ WEAKER PLAYERS: This is a bit unacceptable. There are focus issues, there are compete issues and physical issues. BE STRONGER

4. PLAYERS WHO HURT THEMSELVES BY NOT SHOWING THEIR HANDS. Some guys are moving their feet, some are playing good basic defense but many are touching, using arm bar and clutching. MOVE YOUR FEET SHOW YOUR HANDS. You sure as heck show your hands when you argue the call.

3. PLAYERS WHO ARE CLUELESS IN RECOGNIZING PERSONNEL. Despite coaches and teammates pointing out personnel we have some guys that are just clueless. We are 8 weeks into the fall and players' tendencies are on display every week. BE BETTER

2. TEAMS/PLAYERS THAT ARE CONTENT WITH SLOW STARTS. Our best team after 8 weeks is the biggest offender. I am still waiting to see SJP play with a sense of purpose in the first half. Players need to value every possession from the tip. WAKE UP OR YOU WILL REGRET IT

1. OVER DRIBBLING. I know I am anal about ball handling efficiency but watching some kids over dribble, lose the ball, not going anywhere almost caused my egg salad sandwich from stacheys to come up. Be more efficient and if anyone is actually telling you to dribble like that fire them on the spot

GET BETTER.....GET BETTER.....GET BETTER

Don't be upset with the results you didn't get from the work you didn't do.

WHO BROUGHT IT IN WEEK #8: - THESE GUYS DID!

SPM dropped their first game of the season to Haverhill. Not the usual performance from the Guardians but it was nice to see Bobby Letourneau back at 100% as he scored 19 points and had some nice dimes. Shamar Simms won the chairman of the boards' title with over 12.5 per game. He also chipped in with 4 points. Juan Zorilla has had a very steady fall and tonight he scored 18 and was 9-9 from the free throw line. Haverhill was once again led by its power guy Navin Cruz with 18 points. Joey Fenderson had 11 points on three threes. Tom Vaillancourt can be a nice contributor this fall as he can make shots. Tonight he had 12 points.

Westford took down Peabody for its third win. Jon Glidden is fun to watch. He plays hard and is productive, He once again led the Grey Ghosts with 15 points. Robbie Hudson contributed 8 and double digit boards. Erik Bibbo has been effective the last few weeks. This week he scored 8 points. Peabody was without leading scorer Junior Estrella so others had to step up. Chubukum Onwuogo was one of those guys with 9 points and very good board work. John Irvine was good tonight contributing 8 points and moving the ball

North Andover's Big three of Rogers, Fowler and Rosenthal all had productive week #8. Connor Rogers is a final 8 MVP candidate and this week he continued his strong fall with 15 points 8 assists and 8 rebounds. Jack Fowler who has become very consistent as of late had 13 points and 7 rebounds. Matt Rosenthal continues to burn the nets with 17 points. Chim Ogwuru was in foul trouble all night but was effective when he was in the game. Ben O' Connell continues to do the job on the boards. Wachusett's Sam Dion shot it well for 14 points and 4 rebounds. Eric Bjorn is a double-double guy every week. This week ten points and thirteen rebounds. Eric has become very crafty around the hoop. Joey Nuttall with a team high 16 points and five rebounds. Joey is getting better every week. Ryan Brodin chipped in with 4 points and 5 rebounds

Freshman Kyle Rucker with a breakout of 7 points this week. Seniors Brandon Witten and Timmy Kalantzakos are glue guys for this team and should be main players come winter. Emmet Kim is learning on the fly and coming along nicely as he adjusts to the speed and physicality of the varsity game. Ryan Puglisi continues to fill the role of tough player always battling.

Methuen got a team high 21 points and 12 rebounds from its main guy Andrew Marcelino. Dante Rivera is such a big player on this squad. This week 11 points and his third double digit rebounding night with 14. Freshman Christian Ovalles and Yuriel Cirino had big nights for the Rangers and they are the future of the Rangers. Freshman George Smith with a strong game with 9 points and 2 assists. Victor Mwaurah is a coaches' dream. 5 times on the floor with loose balls. He does all the little things to help you win. Kevin Constant with more confidence out there tonight with 4 points 3 assists and 4 rebounds. Dom Keegan out there doing Dom Keegan things. Tewksbury big two were hounded all night but they did not stop competing. Gio Ciampa with 14 points 3 assists and 6 rebounds. David Giuggio had 13 points. First mention for Danny Priest as he contributed 8 points and Connor Brinklow battled the CC bigs well and contributed 8 points

Nate Hobbs was terrific again with 20 points and 5 rebounds. Nate is so improved since last year when he debuted at fall Ball. Tommy O'Neil is not scoring a lot but his board work and his ability to do a lot of things defensively makes him a MVP candidate along with Nate Hobbs. Happy for Brett McNiff who did the little things this week with 12 points 3 assists and 7 rebounds. Matt Relihan continues to impress with 12 points. Jamelle with another strong performance with 4 points 2 assists and 8 rebounds. Londonderry was led by a great performance from sophomore Ethan Garafolo with 16 points. The Eagles were all over Jake Coleman but he did score 8 points 3 assists and had 4 rebounds all while getting others involved. Jake Coleman remains a front runner for MVP. Point guard Cole Britting had 6 points 3 assists and 7 rebounds. I love Ethan May willingness to do whatever the team needs to do to win

Salem took care of business over Triton behind Griffin Curtis with 24 points and 7 rebounds. Griff is another final 8 candidate for MVP. DJ Coletti chipped in 7 points and 3 rebounds while working very hard on defense. Matty McLaughlin with an impressive line tonight with 11 points 5 assists and 5 rebounds.
